Description

A generously proportioned two bedroom apartment with a large private veranda on the first floor of a small development, moments from Molos Park.

The apartment provides a large reception room with sliding doors leading onto a large private veranda, with views toward the sea. Off the reception room are two double bedrooms, one with access to the veranda. From the reception room there is a large kitchen/dining area with access to an internal balcony currently used as a utility area with washing machine. This apartment also includes one uncovered off street parking space

The landlord will repaint the whole apartment as part of any new tenancy agreement.

Available from 16th January 2021.
